

Dr Carol Print - Subject Area Leader

Managing Financial Resources

Carole is an associate of CIMA and spent her early career in industry, working for UK and International companies in the areas of financial accounting and management accounting. Her roles included the management of the accounting function, development and management of forecasting and planning as well as involvement in training.

She has been involved in management education and development since the 1980's, teaching those studying for professional accounting qualifications, as well as those on postgraduate courses, where she has taught and supervised students both in the UK and also Germany, Croatia, Denmark, Finland, Sweden, Russia, Czech Republic, Hungary and Hong Kong.