

Christine Caruana – Personal Development

Christine is currently completing a Post Graduate Certificate in Coaching from Henley Business School.

This was a natural progression from her educational background as a qualified teacher and holding a Post Graduate Diploma in Educational Management (both from the University of Malta). Christine assists in the Personal Development of programme members as a Personal Tutor and has recently been appointed as Programme Manager on the Henley MBA.