

Paul Gauci - Leadership & Change Tutor

Paul Gauci is a Chartered trainer and lecturer in management education and development with 20 years experience.

He is an accredited Henley – University of Reading, Visiting Tutor for 'Leadership & Change'.

He studied at the University of Malta where he graduated B.A. (Hons) Business Management in 1986 and has, since then, specialised in human resources training & development, continuing his formal studies through a Masters degree, being awarded a distinction in the M.Ed (Training and Development) course from the University of Sheffield, England in 1992.

Paul heads Bank of Valletta's Training & Consultancy Unit and has delivered training projects both locally and abroad. Since 1994 he has been a visiting lecturer within the tertiary education sector both locally and abroad on MBA programmes.

Between 2000-2006, he served as Chairman of the Mediterranean Training & Development Committee of the Mediterranean Bank Network (MBN) and conducted training activities in all Mediterranean countries.

Paul addressed conferences and training events in Europe, Africa and Middle East and served as a member of the European Savings Bank Group (ESBG) - Technical Assistance Providers Network (TAPN) and delivered training sessions on World Savings Bank Institute (WSBI) seminars.