

First Henley Top-Up Talks for 2016

Allied Consultants, Malta's representative of Henley Business School, and the Henley Alumni Association (Malta) Network held the first Henley Top-Up Talks for 2016. The speakers for the event were Dr Elena Liquete, Executive Director of Henley MBA programmes at Henley Business School, University of Reading UK and Lorenzo Mulè Stagno, Henley Malta Programme Director and Dean of Malta Business School.

The event was open to Henley alumni and current programme members.

Dr Elena Liquete led a round table discussion about the Henley MBA whilst Lorenzo Mulè Stagno talked about 'Failing to Succeed- a different approach to failure'.

Both speakers have years of experience in the business and educational environment. Dr Liquete has over 20 years of experience with both degree and non-degree programmes. She designed and managed custom programmes for international clients and she is also a member of AMBA's International Accreditation Advisory Board.

Lorenzo, Allied Consultants' managing director, has led workshops and seminars for the last 10 years in a range of business subjects to various owners and managers and also delivered talks at organisations in Europe, Africa and the Middle East.

Following the talks, the 31 executives attending the event had the opportunity to network at Malta Business School's premises.

The Henley MBA is the only MBA programme available locally that ranks within the top MBAs in the world with triple accreditation through AMBA, AACSB and EQUIS.
